

"distortion"

i look out
upon the world from
minuscule orbs
fact is fiction
and fiction is fact
distortion appears
normal
the sky is blue
the earth is round
or so they say
i am no longer sure
of anything
ignorance IS bliss
there are no guarantees
and the surprise
of being wrong
is a thrill
a reminder of how limited
is my perspective
i surrender to
knowing
nothing
about anything
